

Assistant Manager

Buckle seeks experienced and talented individuals who desire to take their skills to the next level by becoming a full-time Assistant Manager. In this role, you will work directly with and assist a store manager who will help you develop sales, recruiting, educational, and merchandising skills to help lead the team.

Skills Required: Strong communication skills, ambition, an innovative and outgoing personality, and a flair for fashion.

In addition to your compensation, Buckle offers an excellent merchandise discount and several benefit plans in which you may be eligible to participate.

Please apply online at www.Buckle.jobs